

Alan Chandler

Alan has been at Stupples since 1991 and is the Director in charge of the Aylesbury office, although spends much of his time working in the Amersham and Chesham markets. He is responsible for sales and lettings, acquisitions and development advice.

Prior to joining Stupples, Alan worked for Raffety Buckland and has operated in the South Bucks market for more than 25 years.

Alan is an active member of the regional RICS branch, as well as a Trustee of the South Bucks Hospice. He is very widely known in the region, having worked on many of the major commercial property schemes.
