

Kevin Chapman

Kevin joined Stupples in 2000 and is the Director responsible for Professional Services, ie rent reviews, lease renewals, valuations and dilapidations and also has a remit to cover the Estate Management of property portfolios of specific clients, dealing with rent collection and day to day service charge apportionment, collection and management of contractors.

In addition, Kevin's wider responsibilities include buying and selling development sites and investment properties.

Prior to joining Stupples Kevin was running his own Consultancy Practice advising on property matters generally to clients including Railtrack, HSBC and the Post Office. He was a partner in a Surrey firm of Chartered Surveyors.

Corporate experience comes via a period at Investors In Industry - 3i - who were an unusual animal in that they were both a Developer with their own banking finance and were active in direct development, joint venture development and management of their own portfolio.
